Country estates often have distinctive or unique insurance requirements, this may also include diversification activities such as holiday let accommodation, film shoots, weddings, or renewable energy. At Cox Mahon, we consider it a privilege to be entrusted with the task of advising our Private Clients on their insurance arrangements and structuring the most appropriate programmes of cover to suit their needs, something we have been doing successfully for over 25 years.

No two risks are the same. Whether your home is listed or new build, a castle or a cottage, whether you have cherished collections of fine art, jewellery, or rare wines, or simply precious items, the one thing that we all have in common is the desire to protect our most treasured possessions.

With access to an extensive range of high-quality insurers and the decades of experience of our staff to draw on, gained both as brokers and underwriters, we are very proud of the very long-standing client relationships we have established, and the peace of mind we are able to deliver.
